

Digital News Request Form

The nonprofit Space Center Houston receives multiple requests for interviews, filming and photo shoots in and around the center. The following information is needed to evaluate your website, blog, social media channel or other digital platform and the type of story you are looking to write in order to protect the integrity of the foundation's mission and philosophy. Completing this information does not guarantee acceptance of your request.

A complimentary ticket to visit and review the museum are determined on a case-by-case basis considering numerous factors including, but not limited to, story topic, the date you plan to visit, duration, prior commitments to other journalists and staffing requirements. At least two weeks' notice prior to your visit is required to review and approve the request, because of the high volume of requests.

More information may be found at www.spacecenter.org/news.

Space Center Houston is a nonprofit space museum owned and operated by the Manned Space Flight Education Foundation. It is the Official Visitor Center for NASA Johnson Space Center.
